Following completion of this procedure, you will be telephoned within 24 hours by a functionary of the SEC who will confirm your details and corroborate the successful execution of your change of domicile, or the location of your polling station.

All changes of domicile and reinstatements in the electoral roll requested by the public in the country's ID Registration offices will appear recorded in the on-line consultations as the updating of the Electoral Roll proceeds.

This State body reminds voters that changes of domicile and reinstatements to the Electoral Roll will be found enabled in all ID Registration offices until the 8th of September.

PERMANENT ON-LINE ENQUIRY SYSTEM ON-GOING

Making use of the new information technology and in conformity with Article 39 of the Electoral Law, the SEC continues to offer the on-line consultation service which is accessed via the instant messaging application WhatsApp: 8908 – 0800.

On this platform, citizens can consult on the SEC procedures for ID registration, the State Registrar, citizen verification or change of domicile.

Since the service was inaugurated on 20th July 2021, at the 2nd of September 2021, more than 20,00 enquiries have been dealt with relating to ID registration, the State Registrar and change of domicile.

The enabling of this type of on-line service application allows the SEC to provide the citizenry which need it with official information on the services and procedures offered by the SEC via the General Direction of ID Registration and the Office of the State Registrar.

TERM FOR CHANGE OF DOMICILE AND ADDITIONS TO ELECTORAL ROLL ENDS 8TH OF SEPTEMBER.

In accordance with that established in Article 43 of Electoral Law 331, the 8th of September next will be the last day for entry of changes of domicile and new additions to the Electoral Roll.

To guarantee the exercise of the right to vote, we reaffirm the importance of Nicaraguans aged over 16 years, or reaching 16 years of age before voting day, applying for their ID card at the offices of this State body, at the latest on 8th September.

Article 43 of the Electoral Law establishes that the Electoral Roll closes “sixty days before voting day. With this, the definitive Electoral Roll and Platform are created, these to be delivered 45 days before polling day, to the participant political organizations”.

Likewise, Article 44 states that “Only those registered in the respective Definitive Electoral Roll will be allowed to cast their vote in a Polling Station Board, as referred to in the above Article, with the exceptions established under the existing law”.

EXTENDED ATTENTION IN ALL ID REGISTRATION OFFICES

The SEC reminds voters that, this coming Saturday, the 4th of September sees the end of the extended weekend schedule for attention to the public at departmental, municipal and district ID registration offices. This facility was instituted to strengthen the process by which voters could obtain ID or register change of domicile, or other such.

From Monday 6th of September, these services will continue to be offered to the public at all our offices according to the normal schedule of 8.00 am to 5.0 pm, Monday to Friday.

Provisional List of Candidates for 2021 General Election

In compliance with Activity No 8 of the Electoral Calendar, the SEC publishes in The Official Daily, The Gazette, the Provisional list of Candidates for President and Vice President of the Republic, Deputies to the National Assembly and Deputies to the Central American Parliament.

This activity was programmed for the 12th of August, but with the amplification of the Electoral Calendar, it was re-programmed for the 1st of September 2021.

Following publication of this provisional list, the political parties and alliances of political parties will be able, between the 2nd and 4th September, to challenge aforementioned candidates, as established under Article 70 of Electoral Law 331; “The SEC will inscribe the candidates and will publish the lists of these in the Official Daily, The Gazette, once only, in order for the political organizations participating in the electoral process to challenge said candidatures within three days.
